

6516209712.txt

XM should be able to broadcast local content as we pay for it. The traffic and weather channels are excellent because I can quickly hear the traffic and weather on one channel and not have to sit through thirty or more minutes of commercials and/or a disc jockey's ramblings about their personal life. Also, the traffic reports on XM are extremely more in-depth as where with local stations they last maybe twenty-seconds and are only given during rush hour.